

July 2006 Report

Highlights -

- First prosecution concerning trade in lions.
- Two ivory operations

General

July month has been a month of relative low success.

Though two operations succeeded this rate is lower than the average.

Support from the Born Free foundation resulted in the first prosecution of a lions trader. This carries some political importance recognizing that international illegal trade in Lions' trophies is indeed active.

In the middle of the month LAGA Director left for a one month leave for wedding plans. The opportunity is used to give space for LAGA's Cameroonian staff of Management and the different departments to develop more independence.

After reconstruction and transfer of all ivory into the National Ivory Storage Room in the zoo, LAGA continued in building a national computerized database. The importance is of control over seized ivory insuring good governance.

Investigations

- 13 Investigations were held in 4 provinces.
- Start of investigation Spanish connection to ivory trade in Cameroon. Tactic information has been passed to Spain CITES MA through the CITES secretariat.

Operations

- Two operations were carried out with the MINFOF Provincial Delegation and one failed operation all in the central province
- 18/7 - Two ivory operations with two dealers in Yaounde Mvan.
- 19/7 - Operation on ostrich egg and leopard skin in a restaurant in Yaounde owned by a magistrate. This case has failed and is still not forwarded to court because of the Delegate of the central province.
- After reconstruction and transfer of all ivory into the National Ivory Storage Room in the zoo, LAGA continued in building a national computerized database. The importance is of control over seized ivory insuring good governance.
